The History of St. Paul's Lutheran Homes Hahndorf

Located in the Adelaide Hills, Hahndorf stands as Australia's oldest German settlement, rich in history from its Indigenous roots to its pioneering families and religious controversies. This backdrop sets the stage for the story of St. Paul's Lutheran Homes, founded in 1973.

Through this book, explore the evolution of aged care in Hahndorf, highlighted by stories of dedication, challenges, and achievements that have shaped its current state. Discover the enduring spirit of a community that cares for its aging citizens as well as preserving its history.
